TRAVEL BY BUS

BETWEEN TROMSØ AND NARVIK IN NORWAY VIA POLAR PARK

BEST ARCTIC

Meet Arctic wildlife at Polar Park along the way.

A winter journey from Tromsø to Narvik with a stop at Polar Park along the way. The Arctic Route connects these two Northern Norway destinations in around four hours, with the option to get off at Polar Park and visit the world's northernmost animal park. Continue to Narvik for mountain views, skiing, the Ofoten Railway and other winter experiences, all without needing to rent a car.

SEASON, TRAVEL TIME & FARES

- Season: December to March
- Flexible entry & exit stops
- Fixed prices, according to the distance you travel
- Book your ticket online or onboard

Tromsø → Narvik
Tromsø - Nordkjosbotn - Buktamoen - Bardufoss - Polar Park - Lapphaugen - Gratangen - Narvik

TROMSØ — 4 hours → NARVIK

Narvik → Tromsø
Narvik - Gratangen - Lapphaugen - Polar Park - Bardufoss - Buktamoen - Nordkjosbotn - Tromsø

NARVIK — 4 hours → TROMSØ

WHY CHOOSE THE BUS BETWEEN TROMSØ AND NARVIK?

STOP AT POLAR PARK
Make time for a visit to the world's northernmost animal park and see Arctic and Nordic wildlife.

CONNECT SWEDEN AND NORWAY
Travel from Stockholm through Swedish Lapland, with train connections via Kiruna and Abisko to Narvik. From there, continue by Arctic Route bus to Tromsø or make the journey in the opposite direction.

COMFORTABLE WINTER TRAVEL
Travel in coaches with Wi-Fi, USB and charging points, a toilet onboard and English-speaking drivers.

TWO DESTINATIONS IN ONE TRIP
Start in Tromsø and continue to Narvik, with the option to stop at Polar Park along the way.

MORE TO DO IN NARVIK
Use Narvik as a base for skiing, the cable car, the Ofoten Railway and other winter activities.

CONTACT US

(+47/ 953 03 888) info@bestarctic.com https://bestarctic.com/the-arctic-route/arctic-winter-routes-explore-norway-sweden-and-finland/bus-between-tromso-and-narvik-via-polar-park-norway/